

Catholic Teachers: VOTE ~~NO!~~ TO CEWA'S PROPOSED AGREEMENT

for the third time!

A NO vote means CEWA and Catholic Principals' proposed Agreement will be rejected for the third time, meaning the IEU's Intractable Bargaining Declaration case in the Fair Work Commission can still go ahead.

This means arbitration - giving a ruling - on your claims which CEWA and Catholic Principals have refused to move on: you will then finally have enforceable improvements such as:

- Reducing teachers' unsustainable workloads
- Extra DOTT for IEPs
- Caps on classroom sizes
- Maximum hours of work
- Lower caps on out-of-school meetings
- Reduced co-curricular requirements

Don't believe the misinformation that some schools are putting out to teachers.

You will NOT lose everything if there is a NO vote, it will be the opposite.

You could GAIN a lot more than CEWA & Catholic Principals are offering you right now.

This is YOUR chance to have long held workload issues arbitrated and rules put in place.

VOTE NO TO THIS THIRD SUBSTANDARD AGREEMENT.

IT'S TIME FOR A THIRD UMPIRE.
